Back and forth, everyday
Dammit I'm so tired of going through the same things
We break up to make up, then we back at it
At fighting each other, like what the hell happened
To the magic we once had when we first Started and we can't even try to get along enough
It's all the problems that surrounding us

I'm tired of you blaming me for everything that we go through
Now I had enough to wanna reconcile cos I'm through with you

Even though I changed, girl the fact remains
There isn't a place because you burned out our love
Wanna give the truth cos I'm not in love with you
Don't wanna do this no more cos I'm burned out of love
I'm burned out (burned out of love) [x8]

Baby why you don't try to accept the fact that I messed up
But I'm not the same no more
And why you try to keep me down Tryna make me feel guilty like I'm doing those things now
Cos baby I just can't apologize for the millionth time
And I'm tired of going around in circles
Baby this a sign it's not working

I'm tired of you blaming me for everything that we go through
Now I had enough to wanna reconcile cos I'm through
with you

Even though I changed, girl the fact remains
There isn't a place because you burned out our love
Wanna give the truth cos I'm not in love with you
Don't wanna do this no more cos I'm burned out of love
I'm burned out (burned out of love) [x8]

Even though I changed, girl the fact remains

There isn't a place because you burned out our love
Wanna give the truth cos I'm not in love with you
Don't wanna do this no more cos I'm burned out of love
I'm burned out (burned out of love) [x8]
