Can't put my finger on it
How you got a pull on me
I never thought I would find the love that makes me weak
Something 'bout the swagger, I don't know
'Cause I never felt like this before
I used to hate hearing love songs, now that's all I sing

Feels like you know me, I wanna know you too
Let me come closer, show you what I can do
I'll give my heart too, and every part of me
The way I'm feeling, is taking over me

I'ma give you every bit of my love
Every part every piece of my love
I'ma give you every bit of my love
You could have it, how you want it

I'ma give you every bit of my love
I'll do anything you could think of
I'ma give you every bit of my love
You can have it, how ever you want it

I usually don't act like this
My friends say I'm movin' too quick
But they don't understand what you do to my body
It's just so sick, no

And when you're not around I'm gone
I'm lovin' what it is I'm on
Don't think comin' off strong
But I know what I want

Feels like you know me, I wanna know you too
Let me come closer
Show you what I can do
I'll give my heart too, and every part of me
The way I'm feeling, it's taking over me

I'ma give you every bit of my love
Every part every piece of my love
I'ma give you every bit of my love

You could have it, how you want it

I'ma give you every bit of my love
I'll do anything you could think of
I'ma give you every bit of my love
You can have it, how ever you want it

You can take control of me
Do whatever you want, whatever you like
It really don't matter 'cause I'm just for you tonight
I just want you to take the lead
I'ma fall back, and I'm letting go
Do whatever you want, I'm just letting you know

As soon as you walked in the club girl you already know
I wanna make a thumb storm
So, don't play with it girl you know what it do
The dress you got lookin' girl I know how I feel
I wanna move your body, take you back to the crib

Already seen the 24's you love in real
And I ready love you okay, girl you know what is So I'ma keep it short, tell you just how I feel
Ain't no other girl in the club, she doin' what she do

The way you dancin' to my song girl I love how you move
So go 'head and make this money girl
Go an' get right, girl
Let's leap up out of here, you and me tonight girl

Lookin' at the ice, girl
It don't matter 'bout the price girl
I like the way you lookin', I wanna make you move right
Wait a minute, that's a lil' bit far in the future girl
All I'm thinkin' bout tonight is I'm gon' do you girl

I'ma give you every bit of my love
Every part every piece of my love
I'ma give you every bit of my love
You could have it, how you want it

I'ma give you every bit of my love
I'll do anything you could think of
I'ma give you every bit of my love
You can have it, how ever you want it

I'ma give you every bit of my love
Every part every piece of my love
I'ma give you every bit of my love
You could have it, how you want it

I'ma give you every bit of my love
I'll do anything you could think of
I'ma give you every bit of my love
You can have it, how ever you want it

However you want it
However you want it
