We back at it again
Fussin because of your friends
Talkin to all of them
Tryna catch _____
Cause they heard about my past
Out of the chicks that I've had
How many of them are bad
It's either kinda funny
Cause your friends come off
Cause they want me to be their man

They tellin you things
That they think I did
But they don't tell me what's the reason for it
They can't be happy for us
That's why they're making up stuff
In hopes of breakin us up Â-uu-u-u-up

Why do you believe everything your best friends tell ya
When you know they don't like me and on top of that they're jealous
And since we've been together it's been he aint faithful
It's been he gon hurt ya
And he don't deserve you ooh

Don't listen to that she say he say
Don't believe that he say she say
I aint worried bout the he say she say
You know that he say she say
Don't listen to that she say he say
Don't believe that he say she say
I aint worried bout the he say she say
You know that he say she say
Ooh

I wanna try n make things work
But I can't tell from you who cause fuss
It really don't matter when I say _____ to them girls
You believe every word
I feel like I'm wastin my time
So imma let you decide
Who is it gonna be either them or me call me when you make up your mind

They tellin you things
That they think I did
But they don't tell me what's the reason for it
They can't be happy for us
That's why they're making up stuff
In hopes of breakin us up -uu-u-u-up

Why do you believe everything your best friends tell ya
When you know they don't like me and on top of that
they're jealous
And since we've been together it's been he aint faithful
It's been he gon hurt ya
And he don't deserve you ooh

Don't listen to that she say he say
Don't believe that he say she say
I aint worried bout the he say she say
You know that he say she say
Don't listen to that she say he say
Don't believe that he say she say
I aint worried bout the he say she say
You know that he say she say
Ooh

I'm just so tired of being all the things they keep tellin you
Bout what I'm doin on the side
And we look stupid fightin cause
They're spreadin rumours
Just to cause tension between you and I
They're single and they can't find love O-oh
That's the reason they try and create problems
If you can't see it girl
I'll let you know
I aint dealin with it no more
This is it

Why do you believe everything your best friends tell ya
When you know they don't like me and on top of that
they're jealous
And since we've been together it's been he aint faithful
It's been he gon hurt ya
And he don't deserve you ooh

Don't listen to that she say he say
Don't believe that he say she say
I aint worried bout the he say she say
You know that he say she say
Don't listen to that she say he say

Don't believe that he say she say
I aint worried bout the he say she say
You know that he say she say
Ooh
