[Verse 1:]

Bein too much of a man to admit I was wrong,
And I messed up what I had.
Seeing you walk out the door with them bags in ya hand
Never knew it feel this bad,
All of a sudden my chest start hurtin
I couldn't see clear, my vision got blurry,
It's even gettin cold my arm feel numb it's even hard for me to catch my breath I can't,
I can't breathe no.

[Chorus:]

I'm gonna be sick,
Somebody call me a doctor tell them I need
Some medicine before my heart stops.
Think I'm having a heart attack becauz' she's leaving.
Think I'm having a heart attack becauz' she's leaving.
I'm gonna be sick,
Somebody call me a doctor tell them
I need some medicine before my heart stops.
Think I'm having a heart attack becauz' she's leaving.
Think I'm having a heart attack

I ain't breathin'

[Verse 2:]

I'm sittin' in the E.R
Doctors running tests,
Sayin' there's nothing wrong that it's all in my head.
Cause' my xrays, everything came back normal
But I keep feeling this pain, something's goin' on.
All of a sudden my chest start hurtin
I couldn't see clear my vision got blurry, it's even gettin cold,
My arm feel numb, and it killed gettin hard for me to breath, so hard for me to breath.

[Chorus:]

I'm gonna be sick,
Somebody call me a doctor tell them I need
Some medicine before my heart stops.

Think I'm having a heart attack becauz' she's leaving.
