Driving

And I ask so much I wanna say it's my fault I made it (this way)

Pushing you (away) from me

And the day spins, I know I see your face
But I'm trippin' cause you back the other way Don't wanna believe that it's a figment of my imagination

Baby I'm lost without ya,
All I mean is miss, I can't live without ya
Everywhere I look I see you
But it's not you
Is this a mirage I'm runnin' to Mirage I'm runnin' to

I'm stranded in the middle of a mistake Wish I can rewrite the moments that went down of that day
I'm so far, from home
I can't change the past
No matter which way, I go
And no turning back (turnin' back)

And your absence is just too much to take
And I thought that I'd just might be replaced
So I'm seein' illusions
To keep me from losing my mind

Girl, if, I had the chance to change
By the sins that I had made
I'll make it better (oh)
Holdin' on to what we had Still together in my head (oh, OH)

Oh, is a mirage I'm runnin' to Oh ah, just a mirage I'm runnin' to Oh, is a mirage I'm runnin' to, runnin' to, runnin' to, runnin' to
