[CHORUS] Live, live every minute Don't leave till tomorrow What you can do today

MotoLyrics

Any news is bad news When your world comes tumbling down You can fight but you lose Submission can't be found

So what am I gonna do Don't sit and talk about it How will I get through Don't sit and dream about it

I know it's right You know it's right To spend yourself A little at a time

[Repeat CHORUS]

Live, live every minute Don't leave 'til tomorrow What you can do today Give, give every minute Try a little harder And you will find your way

Love will bring you sweets And take your hopes so high When you're at your least Love will say goodbye

So how did it happen to me Don't be a fool about it Was I so blind not to see Don't blame yourself about it

I know it's wrong You know it's right To spend yourself A little time

[Repeat CHORUS 2x]

Find your way, find your way Find your way, find your way Find your way, find your way...
