With Everyday
I'm in this place
I feel this way
I feel the same
Its every day
I'm in this place
I feel this way
I feel the same

Is it all inside my head
Is it all inside my head
I hear my lips
And take my pick
I view my faith
And make a choice
'Cause it's nobody else's but mine

You are in my heart
I can feel you're near
And I lose my mind
While behind the wheel
And I lose control
I can only breathe your name
I can only breathe your name

With every breath
Yet in this place
I need the truth
I need some grace
I need the path
To find my place
I need some truth
I need some grace
The part of you
That's part of me
Will never die
Will never leave
'Cause it's nobody else's but mine
'Cause it's nobody else's but mine

You are in my heart

I can feel you're near
And I lose my mind
While behind the wheel
And I lose control
I can only breathe your name
I can only breathe your name

You'll hear their lips
And take your pick
You'll hear my faith
And make a choice
'Cause it's nobody else's but yours

And your in my heart
I can feel you're near
And I lose my mind
While behind the wheel And I lose control
I can only breathe your name
I can only breathe your name

I can only breathe your name (to the end)
