You took a first-class trip to Paris
You danced in the streets of Spain
You followed the sun to Rio de Janeiro
Cuz you got so sick and tired of the London rain
But honey, late at night
When you close your tired eyes
You'll be there
And I'll be here
And one of us will cry

It's me, it's me
When you need something more
Something you're dying for
It's me, it's me
When you can't see too clear
Baby, I'm always near
It's me

You played your cards, you felt the sorrow
Cuz all that dealer dealt was pain
But baby, where you gonna play tomorrow
The stakes were too damn high
And now, you're broke again
You can trip around till all your money's blown
But who's the man that'll take you in
When all your luck is gone

It's me, it's me
What are you searching for
I know you can find my door

It's me, it's me
I know you've sinned every sin
But I'll still take you in
It's me

And me I'm sitting here
Nothing much has changed
You broke my heart to pieces babe
But that's nothing strange
Well, I ain't angry

That's all come and gone
My arms are still open wide girl
To catch you when you fall

And if someday you realize
Just where you belong
I'm the man that'll take you in
When all your luck's gone
It's me, it's me

When you need something more
Something you're dying for
It's me, it's me

It's me, it's me
What are you searching for
It's me, it's me
I know you've sinned every sin
But I'll still take you in
It's me
Yeah, baby, it's me
