Run,
Run 'til you drop
Hide,
Everyone knows

We all trade in never before
Selling out for the score

Pray,
Squeal when your caught,
Cry,
It's not my fault

Time to trade in never before
Selling out for the score

Seems you prophesized, all of this
Would end
Were ya burned away when the sun
Rose again

[SWEET GUITAR SOLO]

Hate
Long wearing thin
Negative
All you've been

Time to trade in never before
Selling out for the score

Seems you prophesized, all of this
Would end
Were you burned away when the sun
Rose again

Seems you prophesized, all of this
Would end
Were you burned away when the sun
Rose again
