see me sinking in sand hesitate to grab my hand you know you always did it wrong touched a nerve you never deserved to find yourself so close I needed it more than most but I wanna feel I've come far since you let me down I just want to see I'm lost now I'm found with a blink of an eye

I saw my life

you don't know me anymore
I thought we'd be together you don't feel me anymore
'cos you know nothing is forever oooooh

it wasn't meant to be with all the games that I have learnt no more hands burnt my mouth was dry my lips were wet the taste of you I could never hope to forget but I'm no longer helpless since you let me down I'm trying to feed my life got my feet on the ground I feel no fear 'cos I'm already up here

you don't know me anymore
I thought we'd be together
you don't feel me anymore

you were coming at the wrong time you were giving out the wrong sign take me away to a new religion

but I wanna feel I've come far
I'm lost now I'm found with a blink of an eye

you don't know me anymore
I thought we'd be together
you don't feel me anymore

(fading)
you don't know me anymore
I thought we'd be together
you don't feel me anymore

you don't know me anymore
you don't feel me anymore
