"The right time"

is it a good time to be here?
is it the right time?
is it the right time?

is it the right time to stay here?

I'm not dead but I feel miles away
I got to understand things won't change if I pray don't judge me too harshly
I'm taking on a brave new world out there
I love you
you love me too do you?

is it the right time to stay here?
is it a good time to be here?
is it the right time?

I'm not fooled by that look in your tearful eye
I got to realise that this was not gonna be a surprise
just trust me
you must be taking on a brave new world out there
I love you
you love me too do you?

is it the right time to stay here?
is it a good time to be here?
is it the right time to stay here?

I'm hot and I'm cold
I'm brought and I'm sold
I heal and I bleed
you just don't think I need you I need you

is it a good time to be here?
is it the right time to stay here?

is it a good time to be here?
is it the right time to stay here?

a good time
to be here
the right time
to stay here
a good time
to be here
is it the right time?

is it the right time to stay here?
is it a good time to be here?
is it the right time to stay here?
