"... In My Veins"

Full moon night in disguise
I look up to the eternal skies
My mind infected evil
Live my life not only twice

I have awakened all the pain
Which grove the world insane
You see the infernal black
You know me, I bring you

Down, down on your knees
You're tasting the disease, you see
Never cross my ways

Death, death in my veins
Hate, hate in my eyes
Your life was ended
When you surrendered
Just by my fingertip
Death, death in my veins
In my veins

"Wherefore, Oh king, let my counsel be accepted Unto thee and break off thy sins"
Eyeball like fire, pain and desire
You're feeling the raging hate
Endless enduring, godforsaken creature
Along to survive

Death, death in my veins
And I send you to your doom
Dwelt your mind
Rape your soul, I like you to consume
Endlessly in the dusk
All night I hear you scream
Death, death in my veins

Hate, hate, your feeling of the hate
You've to self escape from
Before it's all too late

Death, death in my veins

Hate, hate in my eyes
Your life was ended
When you surrendered
Just by my fingertip
Death, death in my veins
In my veins

Like a one thousand year
Darkened dominion
The field of the dead seed

Burnt and withered
You would never consider
To the once prospering land

Day is night
And night is day
In the kingdom of the dead

Death, death in my veins
Rape your soul, I like you to consume
All night I hear you scream

Hate, hate, you've really got the hate

Death, death in my veins
Is there hate, hate in my veins
In my veins
