Every heart
Has to hurt sometime
Every lover knows
Who's ever been left behind
Every time you told me
Every time I believed it would never be mine
I was just standing in line
Every heart has to hurt sometime

I've always been
On the other side of goodbye
Handing out answers
To someone else's 'why?'
Baby, don't wait for me to ask you not to go
Way down inside I know
Now I know

Every heart
Has to hurt sometime
Every lover knows

Every time you told me
Every time I believed it would never be mine
I was just standing in line
Every heart has to hurt sometime

I guess it finally got around to being me
Nothing you do or say is gonna make it easy

Every heart
Has to hurt sometime
Every lover knows
Every time you told me
Every time I believed it would never be mine
I was just standing in line
Every heart has to hurt sometime
