This song is dedicated to all the lovers who can't be together separated by distance and time

You are always on my mind all I do is count the days where are you now?

I know I never let you down I will never go away

I really wish that you'd stay but what can we do all the days that you've been gone I dreamed about you and I anticipate the day that you will come home, home, home

No matter how far you are no matter how long it takes him through distance and time I'll be waiting

and if you have to walk a million miles I'll wait a million days to see you smile distance and time, I'll be waiting

will you take a train, to meet me where I am are you on your way?
I will never do anything to hurt you I'll never live without you

I really wish that you would stay but what can we do
All the days that you've been gone I dreamed about
you
and I anticipate the day that you will come home,

And if you have to walk a million miles
distance and time
I'll be waiting

And you can walk a million miles I'll wait a million days to see you smile through distance and time, I'll be waiting oh oh oh

oh oh oh
oh oh oh

I'll be waiting

where are you now?
