I hear the lines on the telegraph
Buzzin? my head, I have to shut them out
My ears to the ground, but I try to stand up
Straighten out
Forget my doubt
?Cause I couldn?t bear to lose you
You?re the only one I care for
But I can?t lock out the rumors
I shut my eyes so I won?t see because

One little lie can go a long way
One little lie can go a long way
Would I learn to trust again someday?

I try to ask but my tongue gets tied
When I guess the answer
If you turned your head away from me
I know I?d stand there forever
Caught out in time by a line
That I wanted you to deny
And you?d laughed and laugh ?til I cried and cried
I can?t shut out the rumors
Burning inside me all the time

REPEAT CHORUS

Every day is turning away
I feel something new
If I can?t put my trust in you then
We?ve got nothing worth hanging on to

REPEAT CHORUS TO FADE
