Love and war are games you play by all the rules
Guessing games where winners play so cool
But when a bullet starts to spread from an angel's gun
It's gonna get too hot to stop 'til the deed is done

Just one look
Just one look
One look at you

I don't know what comes over me
I don't know why it won't let go
I don't know what comes over me
No resistance, no surrender
I don't know what comes over me
I gotta let my feelings show
I don't know what comes over me
Inhibitions disappear, I'm makin' my intentions clear
I don't know what comes over me
I don't know what comes over me
I don't know what comes over me
I don't know what comes over me

I can't fight the notion of a one-track mind
Express trains won't stop along the line
And this emotion's gone too far for a compromise
Because you make me feel a need I can't disguise

Just one look
One look at you
