Verse 1:

It's pitch black and I'm so confused
No matter what I do, I always feel used
Just walkin' along; Don't know where I'm goin'
The worst part of all is never knowin'
Never knowin' where to look; I'm all alone
Being dragged all about like my heart's made of stone
The sand's running out; Time is ticking away
I've tried so hard to find it; What more can I say?

Chorus:

I call your name
All I hear is an echo
I reach out my hand
But it's always left unheld
I hear your voice
It seems so far away
When it comes to finding love
I'm searching in the darkness

Verse 2:

I'm being consumed by the feelings around me
I wanna break loose; Gotta set my soul free
All I need is a light to brighten up my path
Get rid of all my fear; Make my hope come back
I'm following my instincts, but that never seems to work
This road is never ending where us victims lurk
Blinded by the truth and what is real
My mind's on overdrive; Can't explain what I feel
