"When Hell Feels Like Home"

Reality is cold and cuts down deep
It brings me another night without sleep
I was blinded by what I thought true
But it doesn't make up for the hell you put me through

[Chorus]

Where can you go when hell looks like home?
Where can you go when life shatters all you have known?

I know there is a storm in the making
But I can't stop my body from shaking
The ground beneath me is quaking
My life isn't worth the taking

I can't hide from the demons that I face
It's sad when hell is the only safe place
The hate is growing stronger
I can't hold on much longer
My world is crashing down

[Chores]

Where can you go when hell looks like home?
Where can you go when life shatters all you have known?

I know there is a storm in the making
But I can't stop my body from shaking
The ground beneath me is quaking
My life isn't worth the taking

Where can you go when hell feels like home?
