How long has it been since I writ you
These papercut hands need to stop
And lonely's a plague but it skipped you
I suffer 'til you cut me up
Then I bleed into your mind
I need to make you blind
I bleed into your mind
I need you one last time
How well you put yourself together
When pieces of you swept away
And somehow forever will never
Put me on my knees at your feet today
And then I bleed into your mind
I need to make you blind
I bleed into your mind
I need you one last time
You'll never forgive me
How can I forget you
Yeah, I fill you full of little lies
You're still hungry for the truth
And I know we've got problems (oh, oh)
Let's just try to stop them (oh, oh)
Hang on
In your mind I still love you
In know in time you'll feel it too
