I should warn you
Things you're feeling
Aren't normal now
Think you need me
It's not easy
Let you go somehow

Now we're too far gone
Hope is such a waste
Every breath you take
You give me the burden's bitter taste
You promised that you'd stay
Say you wanna go
Your lips provide a shelter for the Things that I don't know

Please speak slowly
My heart is learning
Teach me heartache
Stop this burning now

Wishful thinking
Patience shrinking
Bliss is far away
North is callin'
Now I'm fallin'
At your feet
Please stay

Now we're too far gone
Hope is such a waste
Every breath you take
You give me the burden's bitter taste
You promised that you'd stay
You say you want to go
Your lips provide a shelter for the Things that I don't know

Please speak slowly
My heart is learning
Teach me heartache
Stop this burning now

Please speak slowly
My heart is learning
Teach me heartache
Stop this burning now
(ask me why i really wanna say goodbye x2 in the background of last chorus)

(a serveral second pause)

Please speak slowly
My heart is learning
Teach me heartache
