The evidence is clear,
A new day approaches.
They're out there, on the streets.
Plying their evil trade.
The money that they're making,
Will destroy peoples lives.
For this the day of corruption,
Power and lies.

So die if you want to,
But I won't be with you.
It's your decision,
You can take what you want.
But when your in the gutter,
You won't have the strength to utter.
I'm so sorry, I won't do it again.

Your mind becomes controlled,
By the torment in your soul.
Just one fix is all it takes,
To destroy an innocent life.
From a trip to some speed,
It's all the same to me.
You're as good as dead,
A piece of meat,
Lying in the mortuary.
