

All My Heroes "Fond Farewell"

Visit "Fond Farewell" on MotoLyrics.com

In all my dreams, tonight
I bid you fond farewell.
Goodbye friend, your time is spent
Lying here awake my heart never seems to rest.
Your lies said enough again,
You're wasted on your own alone
Don't bother answering the phone.
You gave away your style and grace,
I can't bare to see your face.
With my eyes closed tight put your knife to me,

Blood's been spilled this night,
Rest assure I'll scream
Goodbye friend, your time is spent
Lying here awake my heart never seems to rest.
Your lies said enough again,
You're wasted on your own alone
No chance, you'll never seem to change your ways
