All Saints
"In It To Win"

hey

Somebodys givin' me grief
I'm having one of those days
Somethin' that i just dont need

Today
Things just aint goin' ma way
Nuthin' is workin' for me
Oh boy im feelin the strain

(Bridge)
So now I
Gotta reach up to the bright sky
If I had trusted the faith that so far made me feel right

(Chorus)
Its ok, bad days just come at times
Dont stress wont last, its only for a minute
All good hard times you wonder why
Ok got to be strong if you go win it (x2)

Hey (hey)
Whats the problem with me
Is it bad enough to complain
There's people much worse off than me (hey)

Yay (yay)
Can't seem to handly my feet
Feel Like its all goin' wrong
This s should make me grow stronger (hey)

(Bridge)
So now I

Gotta reach up to the bright sky
If I had trusted the faith that so far made me feel right

(Chorus)
Its ok, bad days just come at times
Dont stress wont last, its only for a minute
All good, hard times you wonder why

Ok got to be strong if you go win it (x2)

Take a deep breath,
Face your fears dont be worried
Life is too full it can never be empty
Take a step back and a better perspective
Fix up the shadow makes it look like I did

Its ok
Its allright
Its all good
Its allright (x2)

(Bridge)
So now I
Gotta reach up to the bright sky
If I had trusted the faith that so far made me feel right

(Chorus)
Its ok, bad days just come at times
Dont stress wont last, its only for a minute
All good, hard times you wonder why
Ok got to be strong if you go win it (x2)
