It's about time that we found out
Truely how, and what your all about
As time goes on
We see she's so wrong, see your both wrong (for once)
I can, barely take it
And his patience, I know wont make it
Because with two bottles down
It seems like someones seeing clearly

Cause the time was fun
But now it's over, now that it's done
And he's found someone
Whos so much better, thought he'd never
Somethings should be left broken
Like the heart that was left hoping
For a comeback, for a comeback, for a comeb ack
Just pack up and leave

Baby baby your shot got screwed over
Long before you were sure that it was saved
In the end, it was your friends
They fucked you over with everything they said
Your loss, he's moving on
I saw the new friend and she's pretty hot
Keep your shit, he's over it
It worked out perfect cause she's everything your not
