Whoa whoa-oh
Whoa whoa-oh
I'm feeling this desperation,
Your words are tearing me apart
With every last conversation,
Not going anywhere from the start

You and I could have made this happen
Given time and some time and sense, but now you're on your own.
I can't help but wonder
What this could have been, but now you're frozen.

I have to be the one who just leaves you all alone
I hate to see you leave, but your hearts been growing
cold, whoa whoa-oh
Now I believe that I'm starting again to be the man that I should be
I hope you find what you're looking for, just take a chance, and then
You'll see.
Then you'll see.

I needed some restoration
But you kept tearing me apart.
I'm going through renovation,
Rebuilding what you took from my heart

You and I could have made this happen
Given time and some sense but now you're on your own.
I can't help but wonder
What this could have been, but now you're frozen.

I have to be the one who just leaves you all alone
I hate to see you leave, but your hearts been growing
cold, whoa whoa-oh
Now I believe that I'm starting again to be the man that I should be
I hope you find what you're looking for, just take a chance, and then You'll see.

Then you'll see.

You and I could have made this happen
Given time and some sense
But now you're on your own.
I can't help but wonder
What this could have been.

I have to be the one who just leaves you all alone...
I hate to see you leave, but your heart's been growing
cold... Whoa whoa-oh!
Now I believe that I'm starting again to be the man that I should be
I hope you find what you're looking for, just take a chance and then you'll
See.
Then you'll see!

I have to be the one who just leaves you all alone.
I hate to see you leave but your heart's been growing
cold, whoa whoa-oh
(Growing cold! )
Now I believe that I'm starting again to be the man that I should be. (Man That I should be! )
I hope you find what you're looking for, just take a chance and then you'll
See.
Then you'll see!

Whoa whoa-oh...
