Attack Attack! We back again baby!

Haha!

Fresh out that jankety baby

Ayo man, it's that new joint baby!

(It's that new joint baby)

Shawtyyy.

Shazam, Shazam, Shazam, Shazam

There is only one thing that can fill my chest

As I go through the options they are useless.

Looking for a reason,

(looking for a reason)

And something to live for

Everything seems to fall short

Oh, my love, you need to just keep breathing

Let your heart beat slowly.

Oh my love, I was never meant to fill your cup

And oh I can't fulfill you forever.

Cause I'm not your knight in shining armor

The one that you might call for everything

There is only one thing that can still my fear

As I look for the meaning, you are still here.

There can only be one God.

There can only be one God.

Shawty, you on my mind (yeah)

Shawty, all of the time (yeah)

Shawty, you're on my mind (yeah)

Shawty, all of the time (yeah)

Oh yeah.

And Oh my love, I was never meant to fill your cup

And oh I can't fulfill you forever

Cause I'm not your knight in shining armor

Or the one that you might call for everything
