Lets get this whole thing started
Lets get this whole thing started
Lets get this whole thing started
Lets get this whole thing started

Take these words and never let them flee your mind
Empty promises can leave you blind
I've been there and I swear I'll never fake it again (fake it again)
Crashing closer to the fear you left behind
Sick of silence and the wasted times that we shared
But I swear I'll never fake it again

It's more than just bridges burning
Scenes start merging
Save your words cause we can make it home again
Make it home again

Lets get this whole thing started
Lets get this whole thing started
(Sick of thinking it's a waste of time)
Lets get this whole thing started
Lets get this whole thing started
(Sick of thinking it's a waste of time)
(Sick of thinking)

It's more than just bridges burning
Scenes start merging
Save your words cause we can make it home again
Make it home again
It's more than just bridges burning
We can make it home again
Make it home again

(Sick of thinking it's a waste of time)
(Sick of thinking it's a waste of my time)
(Sick of thinking it's a waste of time)

It's more than just bridges burning
Scenes start merging
Save your words cause we can make it home again

Make it home again
It's more than just bridges burning
We can make it home again
Make it home again
We can make it
We can make it home, home
We can make it, we can make it
