Do you remember?
Everything we said keeps going around in circles
As I'm lying here I'm searching for the answers
When everything we said keeps going around in circles
Yeah in circles

So what went wrong?
And were did we lose direction
Girl girl
Theres something you should know
Girl girl
Oh oh
Girl girl
Theres something you should know ohoh, know ohohoh

Do you remember?
Was it the comfort of my smile? or seeing the Hatred in my eyes
I hope you regret this
Now that the secret that your keeping is no secret
Was it worth it?

So what went wrong?
And were did we lose direction
Girl girl
Theres something you should know
Girl girl
Oh oh
Girl girl
Theres something you should know
Girl girl
Oh

Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out
Its over he said, its over Theres no arguing now, I've found out where your coming from

Girl girl
Theres something you should know

Girl girl
Theres something you should know
Girl girl
Theres something you should know
Girl girl
Theres something you should know
Girl girl
Theres something you should know

Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out
Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out

Hear screams when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out
Its over she said, It's over
Theres no arguing now cos you know I know everything

Hear scream when the lights are coming down
Hear screams with the lights out
It's over she said, its over
There's no argument now I have found out where you're coming from
