Trapped in a dream
Nothing it seems is ever going to wake me
Sleep in for days, lost in a maze
With paranoia beside me
You can never get out you can never be free
Blame everyone that you've met
And ever tried to deceive
Trapped in a dream
Nothing it seems is ever going to wake me

Spend a night in my shoes
And tell me how to stop this happening
Spend a night in my shoes
And tell me how to seek revenge

Wake up it's time to take over
This place is going to be the death of us
Can't live our lives in the shadows
Of those who try to take the best from us

Taken the pill, live for the thrill
But now my body is breaking
Rotted inside, swallowed my pride
It was mine for the taking
You can never get out you can never be free
Step away from the ones
You thought that you could believe
Taken the pill, lived for the thrill
But now my body is breaking

Spend a night in my shoes
And tell me how to stop this happening
Spend a night in my shoes
And tell me how to seek revenge

Wake up it's time to take over
This place is going to be the death of us
Can't live our lives in the shadows
Of those who try to take the best from us

Wake up it's time to take over

This place is going to be the death of us
Can't live our lives in the shadows
Of those who try to take the best from us

Woah-oah, woah-oah
Woah-oah, woah-oah
Woah-oah, woah-oah
Woah-oah, woah-oah

Wake up it's time to take over
This place is going to be the death of us
Can't live our lives in the shadows
Of those who try to take the best from us

Wake up it's time to take over
This place is going to be the death of us
Can't live our lives in the shadows
Of those who try to take the best from us

Yeah, yeah, woah-oh
Yeah, yeah, woah-oh
