Red light, can't stop
Open up the boundaries
There's no time this time
Not a hand to guide me
Increase the need, gather up speed
Am I invisible to see?
Has anybody even noticed?

I'm still searching for
Has anybody seen me lately?
I've been missing now for so long
I can't seem to find myself
Has anybody heard me lately?
Cos I've been screaming out for so long
I can't seem to find myself

There's no time to face in the wrong direction
I swear now this was never my intention
I close my eyes but I still see
The stranger stood in front of me

Does anybody even know me?

I'm still searching for
Has anybody seen me lately?
I've been missing now for so long
I can't seem to find myself
Has anybody heard me lately?
Cos I've been screaming out for so long
I can't seem to find myself

Has anybody seen me lately?
Has anybody seen me lately? (Has anybody seen me lately?)
Has anybody seen me lately?
