Yeah
Gorn
This anger inside isn't not enough
So bleed me dry forever Because slowly but surely I'm finding out the truth You've been doing all you can to hold me down I'm standing
strong
With all of my friends at my side
This is all that I have to hold on to But it's enough to get me through this
This arrogance won't be enough To
fuel your plans to conquer us We have the strength to take you down
I never believed you We never trusted anything you said You've been doing all you can to hold me down I'm standing
strong
With all of my friends at my side
This is all
that I have to hold on to But it's enough to get me
through this
You can cut the tongue from my mouth
So I'll never speak again Do what you want to stop me
I'm never gonna back down from you
I've got you right where I want you We've got you right where we want you Er-ah
