Start the revolution(x4), For the first time I understand what it means to have taken a life, I don't think I can handle this. I feel my sanity slipping away.
All is lost! Everything has been taken away from me. All is lost!
Everything that I've known is gone. Can you hear the voices in your head listen to what they're saying.

There's no more time to be wasted, cause I've wasted all my life giving to the sin when I had a mind.

There's the blood of another man on my hands. Why do I feel so comfortable?
What's happening to me? All is lost! Everything has been taken away from me. All is lost! Everything that I've known is gone. Can you hear the voices in your head listen to what they're saying. I can hear the voices in my head. Listen to what they're saying.

all my life giving to
the sin when I had a mind.

You've never been where I've been. You've never seen what I've seen. You've never had to spend a day with a cage around your mind. Just set me free.
Set me free.
