When I saw you buying Barbies I knew you were the one
for me.

One size fits all training bra and that's not all that did
for me.

So you listen to 98 degrees and Backstreet, baby tell me why
you like those guys instead of me.

I wanna love you even though you're fourteen
I want you to love me, illegal means nothing to me.
I wanna hold you tight cuz this feelings right,
it's a damn shame you can't stay out past nine.
I wanna love you, yeah love you, yeah you...my little
girl.

So what if you compare yourself to Kate Moss and all those model chicks.

So what if every time you eat you're in the bathroom
with something else to fix.

I'll hold your hair back for you when you vomit up your lunch.

I love you that much, yes I do.

I wanna love you even though you're fourteen
I want you to love me, illegal means nothing to me.
I wanna hold you tight cuz this feelings right,
it's a damn shame you can't stay out past nine.
I wanna love you, yeah love you, yeah you...my little
girl.

All my friends say that I am un-cool just because my girlfriends in middle school.

Don't wanna be just like you they wanna be just like me go out and pick your chick right before she turns three.
