Hoping I am not the anchor keeping you in port,
The hardest part of setting sail is just getting the first foot on the ship.
If leaving me makes being you easy then go, oh no let
me take it back.

No one could ever be my someone
who once told me I was crazy for being a fool.
No one could ever be my someone
who once told me I was crazy for being a fool.

Here I go counting seconds until I complain again.

Hoping I am not just comfort keeping you around.
A person keeping you away from him or her, here or there but...

If leaving me makes being you easy then go, oh no let
me take it back.

No one could ever be my someone
who once told me I was crazy for being a fool.
No one could ever be my someone
who once told me I was crazy for being a fool.

Here I go counting seconds until I complain again.

No one could ever be my someone
who once told me I was crazy for being a fool.
No one could ever be my someone
who once told me I was crazy for being a fool.
