If you turn to the light
Then you'll find all that's right
The brightness of night
The sorrow of life
All around, all around

If you turn to the light
Then you'll find all that's right
The brightness of night
The sorrow of life
All around, all around

If you turn to the light
Then you'll find all that's right
The brightness of night
The sorrow of life
All around, all around

If you turn to the light
Then you'll find
All that's right
See the brightness of night
Feel the sorrow of life
All around, all around
All around
All around
All around
All around
All around
All around
