Front page of the magazine said,
"Don't believe a word you read,
I'm just telling lies, just telling lies..."
Fall short this time of goals you rose to meet that night,
Don't worry yourselves, worry yourselves,
We can carry ourselves, carry ourselves

How does it feel to wake up knowing
That you're playing on something
That could have been nothing but a sad, sad song,
About a group of kids
Who lost it all to the great, big city?

Are we both crazy?
Or are we searching for more
Than life behind the same four walls
Pour me another drink,
I'll commit myself to it and
Lose track of reason to believe in nothing.

I know this is ridiculous,
That's just like me
Make the most of living while you're young
And have the chance to
Take your chances
'Cause I've got to, I've got to go

Don't be afraid I've got your back
When times get rough and bring you down
Maybe you don't understand
We've got to take this or break this off,
It's all up to us
And you better, better, better, better, better believe it

We're just so crazy,
We're all just searching for more
Than this life behind the same four walls
Pour me another drink,
I'll commit myself to it and
Lose track of reason to believe in nothing

I know this is ridiculous,
That's just like me
Make the most of living while you're young
And have the chance to
Take your chances
'Cause I've got to, I've got to go

I know this is ridiculous,
That's just like me
Make the most of living while you're young
And have the chance to
Take your chances

We fight regret so let's burn this city down
