I see you punks with your spikes, your hair dyed, or maybe it's all shaved off
I see you preppies with your v-neck vests over button downs
I see you jocks, you captain of the team with your real mean game face on
But the fashion show can only last so long

Chorus:
Eternal lifestyle
I see you really know what matters
Eternal lifestyle
I'm looking inside

I see you take the road less traveled because of your convictions
And you find the positive in the valley of confusion

Your heart is much more valuable than a diamond ring
So don't hide it let it glow

You are the light of the world
You are the salt of the earth
You are the light of the world
You are the salt of the earth

You have the answers to eternal questions
You hold the keys that the lost are searching for
In your eyes I see a vision of the future
I see the world and I smile
