It seems I came to life when I heard
You whisper You said the words I love you
Every time I think about Your grace it's clearer
You are the one I've been searching for to complete me

Chorus:

When I draw near You always meet me
Longing just to be together again
With every passing day
The shadows in my life fade away
The more I see You face to face
Tell me all Your stories from a thousand places
Of how You made it through
When I hear Your voice my eyes are filled with wonder
I forget the trials and the thorns I find around my feet yeah

Someday
My dreams will soon be reality
Someday
My dreams will be reality it seems
I came to life when I heard You whisper
You said the words I love you
