It will be worth it all someday
It will be worth it to go the straight and narrow way
When we finally see His face
And feel His warm embrace
It will be worth it all that day

These present troubles don't compare
To all the glory our God, He has prepared
'Cause when we finally see His face
And feel His strong embrace

It will be worth it all that day

And I can see the angels as they celebrate and call your name
And I can hear teh Father, with a tear in His eye
As He says well done my good and faithful servant
Well done

It will be worth it all
It will be worth it all
It will be worth it all that day
