I wanted to talk to you - pick up the phone
I don't want to be alone
Said i need someone to hold on tight
Get ready for this magical ride
Helplessly i'm falling so deep
What am i supposed to do
Love's too big a word, baby to hold inside
I tried and tried, but i just can't find the love

Love is more than just another 4-letter word
Can't fight the feeling, no matter what you do
Love is more than just another 4-letter word
If you're not careful, it's gonna get you too

Today were together - tomorrow we're apart
This how our daily life goes
It really doesn't matter, baby, what's going on We're still in love - everyone knows

If i need a helping hand i can count on you
Mornin' noon or evenin' time - it's always the same
You'll always be there - i can count on you

Love is more than just another 4-letter word
Can't fight the feeling no matter what you do
Love is more than just another 4-letter word
If you're not careful, it's gonna get you too

Love is more than just another 4-letter word
Can't fight the feeling no matter what you do
Love is more than just another 4-letter word
If you're not careful, it's gonna get you too

I wanted to talk to you - pick up the phone
I don't want to be alone
Said i need someone to hold on tight
Get ready for this magical ride

Helplessly i'm falling so deep
What am i supposed to do
Love's too big a word, baby to hold inside

I tried and tried, but i just can't find the love

Love is more than just another 4-letter word

Love is more than just another 4-letter word

Love is more than just another 4-letter word

Love is more than just another 4-letter word
