Bluebird, fly
Bluebird, fly
Your finest hour come
Go toward the golden sun
Your wings are beautiful
So spread them open wide
Go on and fly
Bluebird, soar
Baby, soar
The stars are waiting now
And heaven wanna come down
You were due to kiss the moon
The moment you were born
So darling soar
Bluebird, dream
Dream the sweetest dream
Let your heart live there
High as the angels dare
I love you so
But I know you're not mine to keep
You're a spirit of wild and free
Go on and fly and soar and dream
Go on and dream
