You know you've got me here,
Trapped in mind,
Trapped in fear,
You know you've got me here,
Trapped inside,
Trapped in fear,
You know you've got me,
You know you've got me here.

What you think and what feel, is what will come to you, Morphing into the physical world, projecting on the
view,
Every thought will take on a form, intentions will be born,
The musings of a broken man will become the devils
spawn,
It's the artistry of paranoia, it's the creativity of fear,
It's the imagination of anxiety that makes demons appear,
Manifestations of the psyche, enemies self created,
The perils of the outer realm are the mind reflected,
We live in a prison made by self, run from a villain
that's inside,
Hide from a parasite in the mind, let denial make us
blind,
Turn the mind against it's self, make all the foes that we fight,
Give artillery to our destroyer, give power to our nemesis.

You know you've got me here,
Locked in mind,
Trapped in fear,
You know you've got me here,
Locked in mind,
Trapped in fear,
You know you've got me,
You know you've got me here,

Locked in physical,
Trapped in the self.

When fear reigns over the human mind, we perceive the world through tainted Eyes, Observe the scenes in a wretched light, view the picture with tarnished Sight,
We make all the conflicts that we fight, invent all the threats that come
And blight, Create the evil that comes to test, manifest our
nemesis,
We build a fortress around the spirit, putting bars on consciousness,
Condemn the soul to the human shell and confine self
to flesh and bone,
Think our self's into a mental cage and become slaves
to our thoughts,
Become trapped inside a matrix where reality distorts.

The eyes are afraid,
Afraid to see.

When the spirit becomes incarcerated,
The mind is the gate and fear is the keeper.

You know you've got me here,
Locked in mind,
Trapped in fear,
You know you've got me here,
Locked in mind,
Trapped in fear,
You know you've got me,
You know you've got me here.

Locked in physical,
Trapped in the self.

The eyes are afraid,
Afraid to see.
