"Last Parade"

How could you stand there and watch me cry? Not even a tear falls from your eye. I guess it's time for me to say goodbye. This is the hardest part. A year and three months left with nothing but scars. Do you still think about me? You wrote that you were confused about what to do, but you seemed to have it all figured out for yourself. How could you stand there and watch me cry? Not even a tear falls from your eye. I guess it's time for me to say goodbye. Goodbye! Now I'm all alone and I am doing better, but I'd rather have you by my side forever. Where is your heart? Well I hope your heart's in two. Do you still think about me? How could you stand there and watch me cry? Not even a tear falls from your eye. I guess it's time for me to say goodbye. Goodbye. Forget it all. Forget it all. Forget it all. Forget it all. You walked away! You said it was the last time as you walked away (away). This is your day your last parade. You said it was the last time as you walked away (away). This is your day your last parade. Your last parade.
