It's never gonna stop.

Watching the world on a screen,
Change a channel, change a dream,
Sucking us in, wearing us thin,
Senses frayed, reaction delayed,
Frayed, delayed, life's get played
On and on, all contact gone,
Gone away, death to the day,
All that's real, dies away,
Gone away, death to the day,
All that's real, dies away.

What's not real it appeals,
What do you feel,
Do you really feel?

They want control,
They want to mold us,
They want our souls,
They want to take us.

Frozen we need to be woken,
Only way out a reality token,
Oblivious from the head freeze,
The air we breathe makes us wheeze,
Wheeze, wheeze, please
Give us air so we can breathe,
Breathe, respire, fuel the fire,
Don't let yourself tire,
Naturalistic, optimistic,
Peel of the skin made of plastic.

What's not real it appeals,
What do you feel,
Do you really feel?

They want control,
They want to mold us,
They want our souls,
They want to take us.

Mold us, shape us, take us.

Soul suckers

They want control,
They want to mold us,
They want our souls,
They want to take us.

It's never gonna stop.
