Going all the way to the minds grave,
To dig up the past, to raise the spirit, Revive the soul, turn old bones to wishes, burn fears to ashes,
Now reality starts to loosen it's grip as the ghost starts to flee,
As I become a separate Entity,
Slowly leaving the shell and it's self conscious realm, Elation curdles in the blood, feel it rising in the sickly buzz,
Toxic joy, poisonous pleasure, septic bliss, escapism tasted,
Take me there, I don't want to care anymore,
Just want to be the clown that twists the crowd, Just want to be the devil that dances around and around and around and around, Now freedoms just a room at the back of your conscience,
Just got to open the door and walk right in.

Here it comes like a burning breeze, melting skin, chemical sweat, Dowsed in freedom, body's gleaming, every touch a sensual feeling, Tasting sweat, the tender neck, the rushing lust takes affect,
Lick my pride, tease my want, dirty my mind,
The darkest low, the purest high, so real inside, twist
the mind,
It comes on strong, the hardest rush,
The hardest rush, the deepest touch, I could just, touch, if I could just, touch, I could just, touch, if I could just,
Get inside so impure, do everything and more,
Go all the way and back again, do all the devils deeds, Can't contain the brazen beast, that wants a piece, a carnal feast,
Through the flesh, the sweetest blood, intoxicated
love,
Love you here, love you now, but will I love you when I'm down.

Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place,
Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place,
Time sleeps, reality waits, escape inside the painless
state,
Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place.

The mind space opens wide as souls become synchronized, Intertwined in the sound sublime, feel the rapture start to climb, Rising up straight through the floor, burning gurning to the core,
What is this, distorted bliss, distorted bliss, a sudden switch,
Into another place where life gets lost, Transmigrate, altered state, passing through the memory gates,
See the faces that made your life, melt away into tears
you cry,
Need to touch the past again, feel the ones so far away,
All their beauty feels like pain, all their joy pours like rain,
Pours like rain, pours like rain,
The memories cry, soaking my senses, the memories cry, soaking my senses.

Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place,
Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place,
Time sleeps, reality waits, escape inside the painless
state,
Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place.

The other place, where life gets lost, the other place,
where souls can run,
The other place, where life gets lost, the other place,
where souls can run.

Here we are like kids again, the sugar rushing, chocolate brains,
Melting slowly, turning messy, Eat those sweets, decay those teethe, chew those gum's, pull that face, Jaw aching, clenching grin, lost inside the playpen, Their is Know segregation, the walls are down, you can see all around,

Extended beings, like kids again, in a wonky playground of sound, Playing to the bendy rhythms and fractured beats,
The only bully is the music, teasing, teasing the senses, Awakening fond memories of being free, growing again, growing again, wild child.

Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place,
Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place,
Time sleeps, reality waits, escape inside the painless
state,
Time sleeps, reality waits, nothing hurts in the other
place.

The other place, where life gets lost, the other place,
where souls can run,
where souls can run.

Twist, turn, rearrange, faces change, time fades, The light comes, the end waits, slowly leave the next
place,
Coming down from above, hit the ground, fall from
love,
Take the plunge down to earth, feel reality start to hurt,
Start to hurt, start to hurt.

The paranoid light, exposes the scars of the night,
The paranoid light, exposes the scars of the night,
We will be back again, we will come back.
