The timeless souls gather around, the circle of strength surrounds,
From a timid glance, to a warm glare, stare each other without a care,
Comfortably silent, know need to make a sound, Know need to speak, we hear each other,
We hear each other, we hear each other.

Moments of clarity, shared reality, theirs know such thing as an enemy, In the eyes of sincerity the truth will see, what I am to you, what you are to me,
What you are to, what you are to me.
Speak what you hide in the blacks of your eyes, it's all so dark when it's kept inside, Coz the coldest play is the silent game, always sitting in the dark never saying a thing, So no, no, no, no, no, no don't keep them in, quite is sin, say something, Coz all your demons are friends of mine.

Together alone, in this hollow scene, looking for something, Something,
That we can't see, we just can't see,
Together alone, in this hollow scene, looking for
something, Something,
That we can't see, we just can't see.

It always seems so far away, I wanna to get closer but
it's out of reach,
It always seems so far away, I wanna to get closer but
it's just a dream.

Spent a long, long time dancing on clouds, Kicking up flames, keeping ourselves from the ground, Spirit gravitation, healing conversations, mental relations, we're each others patients, Don't speak, just be, my physical remedy, silent company, internal entity, Together lonely on this lost journey, looking for the same thing to set us free, Theirs always more on the other side, that's what desire says anyway, Theirs always something more, that's what we want to believe,

Gotta keep on walking this intrepid path, go on dare me, Gotta keep on making this world our dream, a twisted fantasy.

Together alone, in this hollow scene, looking for
something, Something,
That we can't see, we just can't see,
Together alone, in this hollow scene, looking for
something, Something,
That we can't see, we just can't see.

It always seems so far away, I wanna to get closer but
it's out of reach,
It always seems so far away, I wanna to get closer but
it's just a dream.

I'm so lucky, lucky, lucky, lucky not to be perfect in a fucked up land, I'm so out of touch, and I've lost myself, but it doesn't matter, it's better this way, Theirs twisted laughter and demented humour, Remove these layers and theirs a mental tumour, So sick in the mind, so happy to be mad, so happy to be gone,
And the sane are all sad and weeping,
I wanna to be mad,
Oh god make me mad, oh god make me free, oh god make me see the world differently, So differently, so differently, so differently.

It always seems so far away, I wanna to get closer but
it's out of reach,
It always seems so far away, I wanna to get closer but
it's just a dream.

Together alone, in this hollow scene, looking for
something, Something,
That we can't see, we just can't see,
Together alone, in this hollow scene, looking for
something, Something,
That we can't see, we just can't see.

Together alone, together alone, together alone, together alone.
