I need a aspirin after you until you left I never knew what my heart was really going through and I never wanna go back but if there's some sick twist of fate. I would rather rest in peace, please do not resusictate.

I'm still breathing.
Don't you think I'm not because your leaving?
Never gonna see me grieving
I'm moving up and away.
Not crying
Funny I'm not even trying never gonna lay down
I'm breathing much better
the air is much clearer over you

Suffocating. and I didn't know why until I realized you were standing in the way of my air supply
clear the air, was about to die I wonder why I didn't leave you way before I thought I was insane
but it was you who kept the oxygen from getting to my brain
I'm still breathing.
Don't you think I'm not
because your leaving?
Never gonna see me grieving
I'm moving up and away.
Not crying
Funny I'm not even trying
never gonna lay down
I'm breathing much better
the air is much clearer over you

Over you! Over you!

Over your head.
Out of your view
Breathing so much better
Now that I'm away from you

Don't you think I'm not
because your leaving?
Never gonna see me grieving
I'm moving up and away.
Not crying
Funny I'm not even trying
never gonna lay down
I'm breathing much better
the air is much clearer over you
