"Go Down Fighting"

Every excuse
Each reason why
Is just a way to justify
Letting your dream
Whither and die
I won't let mine
Mine stays alive
No fuckin lie

This is the man I am
I'll keep the promise
And go down fighting
No matter what you say
I'd rather stay
And go down fighting

I have a chance
I have a choice
I have a consciousness
I have a voice

After I'm gone
What was it for?
Was it a waste
One empty space
Not anymore

This is the man I am
This is where I will stand
I'll keep the promise
And go down fighting
No matter what you say
You chose to run away
I'd rather stay
And go down fighting
