Here, it's the most beautiful view
All the lights are set on you center stage
Here, I offer you my heart
It's not much but it's a start so turn the page

Here, The color never fades
And my love will never change, not for anyone Here, I've said all I can say and I wish that you would stage
Cause you're the only one

Here, I could keep you safe
Instead of locked up in a cage of broken promises Here, I will take you as you are Knowing we have come this far
It's more than worth it
Please come home
