Our sunny days have gone away.
And the gray from my eyes match the sky today.
And misery is just a word that fits so perfectly.
And I'll call this home for the last time.
If there's nothing I could say to keep this together,
could we stay together one more day?
I think it's safe to say. That I'm bruised and broken.
And I've awoken from some nightmares, but this is much more frightening.
And I'll call this home for the last time.
If there's nothing I could say, to keep this together
could we stay together.

One more day.
If there's nothing I could say, to keep this together, it's like changing the weather.
One more day. Just know, it's not your fault. Just know,
it's not your fault.
If there's nothing I could say to keep this together
could we stay together one more day?
If there's nothing I could say to keep this together it's like changing the weather, one more day.
